

So Radical

Chris Norman

I'm calling SOS, she's so radical
But ain't nobody else, been closer to me

I can't run away now I try to stay now
Oh to see the truth inside her eyes
Whatever gets me through another day now
I try to hide the tears away tonight
And I am falling, back again so helpless oh, oh

I'm calling SOS, she's so radical
But ain't nobody else, been closer to me
Under her spell she's irresistible
So radical, radical, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

I let her in where nobody else goes
And there she's tearing me apart
I told her secrets, and nobody else knows
But shes playing games with pictures of my heart
I am falling, back again so helpless oh oh

I'm calling SOS, she's so radical
But ain't nobody else, been closer to me
Under her spell she's irresistible
So radical, radical, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Shes an angel heart with a little touch of hell
She ties me up and down could anybody break the spell

I'm calling SOS, she's so radical

I'm calling SOS, she's so radical
But ain't nobody else, been closer to me
Under her spell she's irresistible
So radical, radical, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
