

Sorry Sorry

Chris Norman

Too much hiding behind shadows
Too much crying through the night
Many people move around you
Like a moth around the light

I can feel you
I can see your face
All through the night

Sorry sorry
I tried so hard to say
Sorry sorry
I don't know what to do
But watch you walk away

Many footsteps, many windows
On the verge of a million doors
Close reflections in the mirror
Fading traces on the floor

I can feel you
I can see your face
All through the night

Sorry sorry
I tried so hard to say
Sorry sorry
I don't know what to do
But watch you walk away

Too much hiding behind shadows
Too much crying through the night

Sorry sorry
I tried so hard to say
Sorry sorry
I don't know what to do
But watch you walk away

Sorry sorry
I tried so hard to say
Sorry sorry
I don't know what to do
But watch you walk away ...
