

Trouble On Her Mind

Chris Norman

She wakes up, she takes a bath she goesn't hurry though he doesn't call, she has to laugh tries not to worry so it musn't show But can't you see sh's got trouble on her mind.

She takes the bus, she pays fare, he takes her money now, makes a remark about her hair it isn't funny, now she's really down Oh can't you see, she's got trouble on her mind Oh, oh can't you see
she's got trouble on her mind

She's got trouble
she's got trouble
You know she has got trouble
sh's got trouble
you know she has
you know she has on her mind

She's at work like before it's hard to concentrate but the sings she can't ignore she tries to calculate she's never late Oh can't you see she's got trouble on her mind
oh, oh, can't you see

She's got trouble
she's got trouble
you know she has

She's got trouble
She's got trouble
