

Without Your Love

Chris Norman

Oooh, Guess I took your love for granted
Even though you cared for me
Losing you has left me stranded, like a single fallen leaf
I was foolish and demanding and just too blind to see
You'll always be a part of me baby
How can I survive?
I realise as a consequence
I know that your heart still has a home for me

Baby, I'm amazed with the thought of you
You're so amazing
Lost in all the thoughts I have of you
Come back here, baby
Every night I whisper to the stars, don't wanna sleep
without you
I don't wanna live without your love, it's so amazing

I sacrificed what I should cherish
All you asked was love from me
Now I understand your feelings
You're the air I need to breathe
Never meant to cause you any sadness
And you can blame it all on me
The heart of me will always be, baby sinner of my life

Imagining you loving someone else
I don't wanna be reality, nooo

Baby, I'm amazed with the thought of you
You're so amazing
Lost in all the thoughts I have of you
Come back here, baby
Every night I whisper to the stars, don't wanna sleep
without you
I don't wanna live without your love, it's so amazing

Insecure when I let you go
There was so many things that I didn't know
I can't forget that very night
You turned around and walked away from me, girl

Baby, I'm amazed with the thought of you
You're so amazing
Lost in all the thoughts I have of you
Come back here, baby
Every night I whisper to the stars, don't wanna sleep
without you
I don't wanna live without your love, it's so amazing

Baby, I'm amazed
Every night, every night
So amazing, baby
So amazing
