

Woman In Love

Chris Norman

It's over and he's sorry
The feeling's gone
And you don't know why
Well all right, that's life
She don't worry
But she knows that it's just a lie

And deep inside she nearly dies
And somehow she tries to hide
All the hurting
Revealing a woman in love
She's feeling like a woman in love
And she cries like a woman in love
Oh she sighs like a woman in love
A woman in love, a woman in love

Losing - it's not easy
When things go wrong
And you wonder why
It hurts so bad
Drives her crazy
Tears that burn within her eyes

And still inside she nearly dies
And somehow she tries to hide
All the hurting
Revealing a woman in love
She's feeling like a woman in love
And she cries like a woman in love
Oh she sighs like a woman in love
A woman in love, a woman in love
