

Shirley Do You Own a Ferrari?

Chris Rea

[Chris Rea:]

Shirley

Do you own a Ferrari?

Do you live in a wonderful place?

And the smile on your face

Is of joyful laughter, happy ever after

[Shirley Bassey:]

Yes, I own a Ferrari

Yes, my life is your dream

And I live in a wonderful place

And the smile on my face

Is not sycophantic

I'm just a true romantic

How about you?

What is so wrong

With a heart with a dream

A soul without hope

Is a terrible scene

Deep in the coldest and darkest of nights

I hang on to my dream

Keep it locked in my sights

What is so wrong

With a heart with a dream

A soul without hope

Is a terrible scene

Deep in the coldest and darkest of nights

I hang on to my dream

Keep it locked in my sights

[Chris Rea:]

Shirley, do you own a Ferrari?
