There She Goes

There she goes, the one that I love The one I've been waiting for The one I've been dreaming of There she goes, but she'll never be mine Wasted all of my chances Run clean out of time

There she goes with the wind in her hair And a smile on her face She doesn't know what I'd give just for one moment To be in his place Anyway Take a look, there she goes Take a look, there she goes

There she goes with the wind in her hair And a smile on her face She doesn't know what I'd give just for one moment To be in his place

Anyway Take a look, there she goes Take a look, there she goes
