

Majesty of Heaven

Chris Tomlin

Majesty of Heaven
You're glory fills the skies
Like of the world
You are Lord of all

Humble by Your presence
Amazed by who You are
Nothing compares
You are Lord of all

To You the nations bow down
Through You creation cries out, Majesty
All things You hold together
You're name will stand forever, Majesty
You are Majesty

Merciful and mighty
My heart is overwhelmed
You stand alone
You are Lord of all

To You the nations bow down
Through You creation cries out, Majesty
All things You hold together
You're name will stand forever, Majesty
You are Majesty

Your name above all others
High and exotic
Your kingdom shall reign forever
High and exotic

Your name above all others
High and exotic
Your kingdom shall reign forever
High and exotic

To You, the nations bow down
Through You, creation cries out, Majesty
All things You hold together
You're name will stand forever, Majesty
You are Majesty, You are Majesty
