

I'm an untrained dog, no collar
Had loose screws since I was a toddler
Yo don't bother
Up in this bh drinking vodka like water
Do you read me? Roger, I am a monster
All young buck white kids put the mic down, I am your father
Still be drinking like I did when I was up at Hofstra Taking more shots than I did playing Contra Hold up, hold up, hold up, wait
Let me take a sip of water, I don't know if I'm straight
Lost track of all the lit's that I drank
And I'm feeling like I just might faint
But I lace my sneakers, eat a piece of pizza
And throw another... Up on the Visa
Banging out those speakers
Going hard in the paint like I f*d Mona Lisa
Where the chronic B?
My short term memory is chronically
F*d up, cause I burn down constantly
How could I shape up? I forgot geometry
But they gon learn ct and geography
Cause I got the whole damn world watching me
It's hard to even keep up with it honestly
Let's getting it muthafucking popping B
Will lose some brain cells
I don't think I'm leaving this Muthafucker, til someone takes away my keys and st
I haven't been trained well, I'm so disobedient
Got that verbal dope, so just holla if you need a fix
Drop a freestyle, daily fire
Lighting up a bong up that'll take me higher Crazy rhymer, that's known to cross the line like a stereotypic al Asian driver
Web so sick that I make'em nauseous
Go balls out, never play it cautious
Went from a... To rapping to muthafuckers in suits in a label o ffice
I'm a beast on the mic with a beatbox flow
Anybody stepping after he rocks, no
He got flow, I'm an animal, follow my name with an e-i, e-i, ei-o
Seat ride low when I'm cruising in
With a cup full of brown like Julian
With a trailer park boy and some hooligans
Got bars, yeah I got a few of them
