I'm consistently givin you shit that's cleaver n unique,
If you don't think that I'm reckon it every second that you sleep,
You basically played yourself like puff in "get him to the greek",
Now when I be spittin people actually listen,
Because webby be rippin with grammatical precision,
Adverbs and adjectives,
Kickin all these damn vowels,
Continents till my enemy sweat here's a hands towel,
Sham wow salesmen,
Beatin up you bitches,
Cookin up a classic with this heat from out the kitchen,
I'm originaly genius,
Brain out of propotion,
And got your girls legs spread wider then air Jordan,
I'm ballin,
Every single syllable I said is clear,
Ridin into Camelot,
To stick it to gwenovear,
King Arthur flow on top of your northern hemisphere murderin the verse,
So I guess that I gotta end it here

Nikes on the floor
Fitted hat low they already know it's about to go down,
Bout to go down, bout to go down, bout to go down, down, down, down
An when I get signed on that dotted line
