

Humble Hustler

Chris Young

Ooh you tired to hear me moan
But check out to hear me moan
My friend Chuck just stag, his mom just die a year before
Crazy world we living, world full o sinning
Sending the fee, my mama thank you, father please forgive me
So in love with a women that even got me a daughter
I was so out of place now she got me in order
Unless the Lord call me, better try living throw my Lords
