

In My Bed (sleeping Alone)

Chrisette Michele

I have these big windows in my place.
Half of my bedroom is just glass, so
Every morning when I wake up
I wake up to the beautiful sun and the sky in my face.
Bad part is I'm afraid of the dark.
So night time isn't always sweet.

My favourite part of a relationship,
Is holding each other through the night.
Safety you know.
So the hardest part of breaking up for me
Is sleeping alone.
I wanna hear you breathe,
That quiet time is quality time to me.
When I left my last love,
I cried myself to sleep in the beginning
Finally
I told myself the morning won't be like the night time.
So if I can't do anything else,
I just gotta get through the night.
