

Visual Love

Chrisette Michele

I walk in, red heels
Acting but hop up them big wheels
They're giving me so much attention
Yea they're looking at me like I ain't real
Hey, black dot shades
Like I step right out of a cover page
Walking in slow motion in the wind
I got em coming to me
Oh I hear em saying

I'll be there for you
I bet they don't even have a clue
Your eyes tell you you love me
But that don't mean I do
You can't do nothing for me
If your love isn't true
Your eyes tell me you love me
But that don't mean I do
And I ain't gon let you hurt me
When you'll see someone new
Just 'cause you're in visual love
Visual love

Know what you want but you can't have
All of me unless it's gonna last
You gotta have more than 2 eyes
If you came in to call yourself my man
Hey, all games aside
If you wanna get to me do it right
That it'd be better than what's yo name
And I already heard em say

I'll be there for you
I bet they don't even have a clue
Your eyes tell you you love me
But that don't mean I do
You can't do nothing for me
If your love isn't true
Your eyes tell me you love me
But that don't mean I do
And I ain't gon let you hurt me
When you'll see someone new
Just 'cause you're in visual love
Visual love

Um love, I'm more than a visual
Um love, I'm more than a physical love
Um love my individual
Visual yea, 'cause you're my visual love
Um love, I'm more than a visual
Um love, I'm more than a physical love
Um love my individual
I'm a do myself, you're like me
'Cause you're my visual love

Love me
But that don't mean I do

You can't do nothing for me
If your love isn't true
Your eyes tell me you love me
But that don't mean you do
I ain't gon let you hurt me
If you'll see someone new
Just 'cause you're in visual love
Visual love
Visual love
Visual love

There's gotta be more than visual love
There's gotta be more than visual love
There's gotta be more than visual love
There's gotta be more than visual love
