How can I tell you what I'm feeling
So you would always remember ooh ooh
What can I do to take this moment
And make it last forever
I know it's been said many times, many ways
But it's never come from a deeper place

For every minute of this life that I am breathing
Until there's nothing in this world I can believe in
As long as there's a single part of you that needs me
I know I am gonna to love you, completely
What did I do to get an angel
Lying here beside me ooh ooh
Where did you find all these emotions
I felt deep down inside me
I only know that this world will change
But your hold on my heart will stay the same

I have no doubt at all
No fear of falling down
Completely,
Be with me,
Believe me,
You will always know

Until there's nothing in this world I can believe in
As long as there's a single part of you that needs me
I know I am gonna to love you
I know I am gonna to love you,
Completely
