

Tell Me Your Name

Christian Bautista

Tell me your name you're lovely
Please tell me your name
Just when I thought
This would be one of those boring games

You walked into these feelings
You looked at me and smiled
My heart unfroze and started going wild

Can you imagine this
The confusion of first loves kiss
A return to wondering
If the magic of love was this
You merely said hello
And my mind did a stop and go
Can it possibly be
The future for me is you...
Tell me your name
I must know
Won't you tell me your name
I'm not insane
Just frightened that you might go
Don't go please stay beside me...
Wait until I can tell you all my schemes
Chasing rainbows, spinning dreams
Finding someone to love like you...

I'm not insane
Just frightened that you might go
Don't go please stay beside me
Just wait until
I can tell you all my schemes
Chasing rainbows, spinning dreams
Tell me please your name...
Tell me...
