

You

Christian Bautista

You give me hope
The strength the will to keep on
No one else can make me feel this way
And only you
Can bring you all the best I can do
I believe you turn the tide
And make me feel real good inside

You pushed me up
When I'm about to give up
You're on my side when no one seems to listen
And if you go
You know the tears won't help but show
You'll break this heart and tear it apart
Then suddenly the madness starts

It's your smile, your face, your lips that I miss
Those sweet little eyes
That stare at me and make me say
I'm with you through all the way
'Cause it's you, who fills the emptiness in me
It changes ev'rything, you see
When I know I've got you, with me

You pushed me up
When I'm about to give up
You're on my side
When no one seems to listen
And if you go
You know the tears won't help but show
You'll break this heart and tear it apart
Then suddenly the madness starts

It's your smile, your face, your lips that I miss
Those sweet little eyes
That stare at me and make me say
I'm with you through all the way
'Cause it's you, who fills the emptiness in me
It changes ev'rything, you see
When I know I've got you, with me

It's your smile, your face, your lips that I miss
Those sweet little eyes
That stare at me and make me say
I'm with you through all the way.
'Cause it's you, who fills the emptiness in me
It changes ev'rything, you see
When I know I've got you, with me...
With me...
