Angels And Drugs

Christian Death

Walls move as if to crumble Feet shift and then I stumble And your still lying breathless on the floor

Angels sing of the great healer Bell ring sounds the dealer But you wont be dancing anymore

It's the drugs talking
(whisper in my ear)
It's the drugs talking
(hear you loud and clear)
It's the drugs talking
(screaming out my name)
ITS THE DRUGS TALKING
(CRAWLING THROUGH MY VEINS)

Searching for a new dimension Never was my intension To find you lying breathless on the floor

Though it made you the better dancer The little pill was not the answer And you wont be dancing anymore

It's the drugs talking
(whisper in my ear)
It's the drugs talking
(hear you loud and clear)
It's the drugs talking
(screaming out my name)
ITS THE DRUGS TALKING
(CRAWLING THROUGH MY VEINS)
