

Invitation Au Suicide

Christian Death

From beneath the depths of her nest
Tara Ntula comes for thee
So let her legs swarm over you
As she draws upon your bed
Ebony body in your flesh
She's as black as she can be
Though she can change polarity
As she crawls upon your bed
For the love of you
I'd commit suicide
I'd open my heart
To find you there inside
Beneath her breath and flowing hair
Taste you her duality
So let her legs swarm over thee
As she falls upon your bed
For the love of you
I'd commit suicide
I'd open my heart
To find you there inside
