

How I'm Livin' Now

Christian Kane

I spend my life
A little left of honest livin'.
I hope God will be forgivin'
When I'm done.
Take a little more time
And give it to the friends I'm missing
And lend a little more ear and listen to everyone.
Oh, I'm set on changin' my ways.

I'll make sure
I make the best of what's yet to come.
Laugh a little bit more while I'm still young.
Yeah, yeah
Put a smile back in style.
I'll make sure
I make my daddy proud enough.
Go all in and get lucky in love.
Yeah, yeah
Oh, that's how I'm living now.

Well I still get it on
A little more than I probably should
But I never claimed to be too good to do a little wrong.
Come mornin' light
I hit the ground get up and go
And it feels so good for me to know
I'm where I belong,
Right here,
Yeah today.

I'll make sure
I make the best of what's yet to come.
Laugh a little bit more while I'm still young.
Yeah, yeah
Put a smile back in style.
I'll make sure
I make my daddy proud enough.
Go all in and get lucky in love.
Yeah, yeah
Oh, that's how I'm living now.

I'll make sure
I make the best of what's yet to come.
Laugh a little bit more while I'm still young.
Yeah, yeah
Put a smile back in style.
I'll make sure
I make my daddy proud enough.
Go all in and get lucky in love.
Yeah, yeah

I'll make sure
I make the best of what's yet to come.
Laugh a little bit more while I'm still young.
Yeah, yeah
Put a smile back in style.
I'll make sure

I make my daddy proud enough.
Go all in and get lucky in love.
Yeah, yeah
Oh, that's how I'm living now.
That's how I'm living right now.
