Lucky Few

Christian Kane

I never did have anything, I never wanted much anyway. I never learned how to play the game Like the lucky few.

I was in love but it fell apart, I never cared much from the start, And now I keep my distance From those happy hearts of the lucky few.

And I, I know that I'll survive. And I, I'm glad to be alive. But I won't be like you-One of the lucky few.

I hang around this crazy town, I watch these people throw their money 'round, The second coming wouldn't slow them down-Oh, the lucky few.

And I, I know that I'll survive. And I, I'm glad to be alive. But I won't be like you-One of the lucky few.

Yeah, one of the lucky few.
