

No Hero

Christian Linke

Hopeless you've been a lot
But you think you're up
As I'm here you think you just fly away
As I am honest I just talk about the fact.

I'm not that special anyway
And I try to reach you, help you, trust me I do
But I can't do magic and my hands are tied You're in a pit and now it's all up to you.

It's not mine it's your own way you have to find
I am no superstar coming by
You have to stand up on your own
I am no hero, I just wonder why
You never fight back, you just moan.

Once more you're holding on my rope
It won't help
Please try to remember what I tell you here
You got your feet to carry yourself away
There is a lot of guts beneath your fear.

Repeat these words, to make sure you don't fall down
The last time I tell that you are left in here
I am no superstar coming by
You have to stand up on your own
I am no hero, I just wonder why
You never fight back, you just moan.

You never turn around and face the fact
Your way is longer than you thought
This world is screaming, there's no need to act
There's no need for second thoughts.

I am no superstar coming by
I am no hero, I just wonder why
I am no superstar coming by
You have to stand up on your own
I am no hero, I just wonder why
You never fight back, you just moan.

You never turn around and face the fact
Your way is longer than you thought
This world is screaming, there's no need to act
There's no need for second thoughts.
