

Tore a Hole.

Christian Linke

Holding on your arms so tightly
I've been losing everything
Next to me you seem almighty
Taking cover under your wings

As I blink we're lifting off
Leaving all the past behind
My whole life seems to restart
Got a fresh and empty mind
Thanks to you Im leaving my hole

Feeling save you're leading the way
Whereever you go I want to stay
Couldn't think of going alone

Whenever I am losing grip
Wasting me into the air
With you Im leaping pits
There's nothing I wouldn't dare

I got a strength deep in my body
And I found you to unlose the hold
You are my only antibody
Without you I lose control

Feeling save you're leading the way
Whereever you go I want to stay
Couldn't think of going alone
Alone

Feeling save you're leading the way
Whereever you go I want to stay
Couldn't think of going alone

I've never meant to be only weight
But when I'm gone you will need first aid
You're helping me to tore a deep hole (3x)
