

Here I Am

Christie

Well, here I am, baby, waiting for you to come back
Here I am, baby, waiting for you to come back
You know I ain't gonna move until you decide to come back

Well, here I am, baby, waiting for you to come home
Here I am, baby, waiting for you to come home
You know I ain't gonna move until you decide to come home

Well, you treat me bad
You drive me mad
But you're still the best woman I ever had
Come on, hey, hey, come on
Because I ain't gonna move until you decide to come home

Here I am, baby, waiting for you to come back
Hey, hey, here I am, baby, waiting for you to come back
You know I ain't gonna move until you decide to come back

Well, here I am, baby, waiting for you to come home
Hey, hey, here I am, baby, waiting for you to come home
Because I ain't gonna move until you decide to come home

Hey don't you know
I'm all alone
So get on back, baby, where you belong
Come on, hey, hey, come on
You know I ain't gonna move until you decide to come home
