

Loves Embrace Interlude

Christina Aguilera

people ask if im in love with you cause im sitting here with your picture and smillin to myself (i smile) im kinda lost in my own thoughts of you my heart speaks before my mind thinks through, and i blush as i say yes

what a feeling of vulnerability comin over me and im feeling weak and i cant speak (speak) i cant think never thought id give in so willingly to a human being with abilities to set me free (free), let me be me makes me wanna say your lips, your eyes, your smile, your kiss i must admit its a part of me you please me, complete me, filling me like a melody your soul, your flow, your youth, your truth is simply proof we were ment to be but the best quality thats hookin me is that youre lovin me 4 me is that your lovin me 4 me...
