Baby every now and then you disappear from this earth
And where you been and where you go I don't know
But when you didn't up for till 2 I'm like where was you Late again (you) didn't call on the cell that I bought

I figured out when you open your mouth
First you start forgettin' then your palms start sweatin'
Then you twitch, twitch
You can't disguise when you're caught in a lie
You always reply with a twitch, twitch

It's true your body language told on you Tell me what'd you do
First you lie, start to stutter
What's your problem? I'm not your mother you're guilty and one day you gonna feel me but you should know it's not right it's not okay I wasn't born yesterday

Speak up, I can't hear you
What did you say boy wussup?
You so crazy acting this way, is there something
In your eyes cuz you twitch when you look at mine
