

Change Your Mind

Christine Anu

Staring at the river,
watch the river flow.
I can't stop the river,
never know.

If I could make the mountain
fall into the sea.
Maybe I could make you fall for me.

Would you change your mind?
Change your mind?
Change your mind?

All the stars keep turning,
wheeling all night long.
Can I make you turn and hear my song?

You're the only one I'm always thinking of.
You're the one I'd kill for,
babe, my love

Maybe when you're sleeping
I can make a spell.
And then when you wake up
I won't tell.

If I could stop the sunshine
turn the night to day.
Maybe I could make you come my way.
