

I Will (Take You Forever)

Christopher Cross

I was a man who always
Played around in love
So quick to take
But so afraid to give enough

But now I've found the one
And Heaven will only know
What only my eyes can say
And time can't take away

I was a girl who trusted no one
With my heart and the dreams
That young girls dream
Were just vanishing in the dark

But now I've found the one
And Heaven will only know
What only my eyes can say
They say

That I will take you forever
And there will never be anyone else in my heart but you
And I will take you forever
And there will never be anyone else but you
Anyone else but you

Now my touch belongs to you
And I will always be your best friend
Now my secrets are safe with you
And the magic will never end

Now you are the one
And Heaven will only know
What only our eyes can say
They say

That I will take you forever
And there will never be anyone else in my heart but you
And I will take you forever
And there will never be anyone else but you
Anyone else but you, anyone else but you

That I will take you forever
(Oh yes I will, yes I will take you forever)
There will never be anyone else in my heart but you
(In my heart)
I will take you forever
(Yes I will)

There will never be anyone else but you
(Anyone else anyone else)
I will take you forever
(I will take you forever, I'll take you forever)

There will never be anyone else in my heart but you
In my heart, I will take you forever
(I'll take you forever)

there will never be anyone else in my heart but you.
(Ohh yeah)

That I will take you forever
And there will never be anyone else in my heart but you
And I will take you forever
And there will never be anyone else but you
Anyone else but you
