Never Stop Believing

Christopher Cross

Every night in my window I see pictures of the day we met I keep wishing on the falling stars To forget you but it hasn't happened yet

And I still remember when you walked away It was more than my heart could believe Careless wind blew the smell of your perfume away But the touch of you It never leaves

So I'll never stop believing Someday your love is coming back to me No I'll never stop believing Someday that you'll be coming back to me

Everybody in my life They say forget that girl She's gone for good How can I explain this heart It just keeps hanging on Cause something says it should

Oh I go on remembering how good we were The sweetest days I'll ever know This careless boy Somehow he let you get away But the touch of you He'll never let it go

Time and time again I see Just how much she meant to me Oh a love like that is meant to be She's got to come back She's got to come back
