Someday

Christopher Cross

Here's a song for the hearts so lonely The ones who feel that love won't come Looking to find that one and only I've got something to say to you

You see the lovers walking down the street You feel your life's a little incomplete I know what you mean and I'm here to tell you Wipe the tears from your eyes You know I would not lie

Save your love for someday, girl Someday will come soon Save your love for someday, girl Someday will come soon

You give your love away to someone new
Just so you can say that he belongs to you
You smile and you laugh and you talk of forever
I'm not so sure that it's true

Don't give up on love Someday will come soon

After you've found that dream you treasure After the chill has left the air All of the pieces will come together The things that two can share But only time can take you there
