

Go Find A Man

Christopher

You threw my favorite t-shirt out, who the hell do you think you are?
Always change the music when we're driving in my car
You don't like my friends, you say they're immature
But you don't like anything cause you're so insecure

And I'm not sure, what you're looking for

Go find a man that you can change
And let me go because you don't want me, no
You never never did
Go find a man who will obey every word you say
You don't want me, no,
You never never did x3

You don't like the way I laugh, say I always talk too much
And you hate the way I dance, but don't really give a fuck!
You can't take it, you can leave it, you can break it or believ e it
I'm so over you, telling me what to do

Go find a man that you can change
And let me go because you don't want me, no
You never never did
Go find a man who will obey every word you say
You don't want me, no,
You never never did

You never ever will
You never ever understood
You won't get it until Until you have lost me for good

Go find a man that you can change
And let me go because you don't want me, no
You never never did
Go find a man who will obey every word you say
You don't want me, no,
You never never did
