

Morning Light

Christopher

Morning sun, tell me this is real now
Cause I've been waiting for so long
For you to hearing my favorite song morning light, breaking through my window
Coffee, breakfast on the bed
I really mean all the things I said

I've been lost so many times
But I've been saved every time

Cause I love you, love you, love you
And I feel you, feel you, feel you
Never looked at someone, felt the way I feel when I look at you
And I know you, know you, know you
Know you need me, need me, need me
Never looked at someone, felt the way you feel when you look at me

Morning smile, sneakin' in on your lips
While I whisper in your ears
Exactly what I know you wanna hear
Morning kiss, I can feel your heartbeat
Trying not to wake you up
I just wanna feel your love on top of me

You've been lost so many times
But you've been saved every time, yeah

Cause I love you, love you, love you
And I feel you, feel you, feel you
Never looked at someone, felt the way I feel when I look at you, oh o h
And I know you, know you, know you
Know you need me, need me, need me
Never looked at someone, felt the way you feel when you look at me

And I've been waiting, waiting for the right to come along
And I've been waiting, waiting to live the story in this song
I see the perfect picture, but does it fit the frame?
Surroundings are indifferent, and I still feel the same
There's a million ways to say

That I love you, love you, love you
And I feel you, feel you, feel you
Never looked at someone, felt the way I feel when I look at you, oh o
h
And I know you, know you, know you
Know you need me, need me, need me
Never looked at someone, felt the way you feel when you look at me

Morning light, tell me this is real now
