Romano, Carlson Christy

Everyday put on my makeup
And try to face who you want me to be
I hear you say I'm gonna make it
If I do exactly what you please
When I can stop
Put down my megaphone
When can I feel I'm not up here alone

I wont let your fantasy ruin my reality no
That aint what I need
I got some commodity saving my sincerity no
I just can not be
Your celebrity
Your celebrity

When did I cross the line and ignore the little voice inside me don't recognize these empty eyes and I don't know if that's just what they see Forget all the doubt negativity
Forget what im taught and sing my soul free

I wont let your fantasy ruin my reality no
That aint what I need
I got some commodity saving my sincerity no
I just can not be
Your celebrity

15 minutes of fame aint worth the
Living a lifetime of somebody else
Your dreams to big for a small town no doubt
Gotta clime this mountain
All by myself

I wont let your fantasy ruin my reality no
This aint what I need
No price on my integrity cant be you just for me no
I just cannot be
And I will not be
Owe Your celebrity
Your celebrity
Yea yea
Your celebrity
