Continental Céilidh

Christy Moore

Over in McCann's there's a grand type of dance band a'playin' And they're spinning out the continental ceilidh They're comin' in their cars from the bars Over in Leister and Killane Just to hear the famous Gunter Reynolds playing Out the star of Munster with Hans O'Donahue Neatly rappin' out a tango on the spoons Such commotion will act like a lotion on the struttin' At the continental ceilidh tonight. Wolfgang's playin' on the comb someone shouts at him: "go home!" Klaus is playin' a slow air on the bodran Quinn from Corofin his fiddle tucked beneath his chin S-s-h-h He's goin' to play the "Bogs of Oranmore" now An old fashioned lady begins to sing a song Ah, lads, a bit of order over there Clarinbridge for the chowder keep your powder dry At the continental ceilidh tonight. Ciaran closes his eye's pretends he's in disquise When he sees an old flame comin over He's singing for the Swedes in their tweeds Doin' all he can to please The night's at such a delicate stage Later on he'll give an audience to one of them or two He'll sing the Dyin' Swan to touch their feelin's Tonight's his night and tomorrow night will be just the same. Ada let me out to the bar where the boys are goin' far And they're spinnin' out the continental ceili Never mind the liquor the music's in my soul So long as I can hear the band a'playin' The pipes and the flutes and the fiddles are in tune Whoo, I'd love to meet a European girl Ada now me head is goin' light and the band is playin' tight At the continental ceilidh tonight. All the publicans are there it's like a hirin' fair Tryin' to figure out how much McCann is makin' To keep their pubs outta stubs, they're lashin' out big subs In a burst of fierce anticipation Moguls from Mukhill are starin' at the till Tryin' to get a low down on the line up They'll be buyin' free porter for members of the band At the continental ceilidh tonight.
