

Listen

Christy Moore

Listen to the whisper of moonlight on the water
Close your eyes and listen
Listen to the singing of a feather on the breeze
Close your eyes and listen

Listen

Listen to the harmony of heartbeats in unison
Close your eyes and listen
Listen to the rhythm of souls dancing 'round the stars
Close your eyes and listen

Listen to the ringing of distant bells calling
Listen to the flutter of an angel wings on high
Listen to the rapping and the clapping and the humming
Listen to the snow fall gently on the mining town

Close your eyes and listen

Listen to the whisper of moonlight on the water
Listen to the singing of a feather on the breeze
Listen to the prayers of children to their blessed mothers
Listen to the pleading of the faithful to their father
