

Finding My Own Escape

Chromium

What do you want from me?
Why can you never see?
I tried my best to satisfy
I cannot find the reason why

You take me,
You break me
Of everything I own
Forsake me, mistake me
It's all you've ever known

Never knew it would come down to this
Feeling lost in my own existence
Seeing blind through the eyes I have
You can never take away my soul

I can never be it all
Waking now, like before

This life is not for me
I change for slavery
I tried my best to satisfy
I cannot find the reason why

You take me,
You break me
Of everything I own
Forsake me, mistake me
It's all you've ever known

I can never be it all
Waking now, like before

I have never found a way
Forever now, you're endlessly
I'm running behind you
I can do this my own way
I'm running behind you
I can find my own escape

Running behind you
I can do this my own way
I'm running behind you
I can find my own escape

I can find my own escape

Never knew it would come down to this
Feeling lost in my own existence
Seeing blind through the eyes I have
You can never take away my soul

I have never found a way
Forever now, you're endlessly
I'm running behind you
I will do this my own way
I'm running behind you

I can find my own escape

Running behind you

I can do this my own way

I'm running behind you

I can find my own escape

I can find my own escape
