

Inner Demons

Chromium

Take a look at the world surrounding you
Is it all you hoped for?
Dissapear, hide it all, they never knew
Your inner demons before

Why does it always have seem to be this way
It always ends the same

Take a step back and see the truth of it
You wanted more
Loosing grip, falling into your abyss
Your inner demons implore

Why does it always have seem to be this way
It always ends the same

I will not give in
I will not back down
My life to begin
Was lost now I am found

Why does it always have seem to be this way
It always ends the same

I will give everything to make a change
But will it end the same?
