All is lost now here I stand
Could this all be done by your hand
And now I know this paranoier won't follow

Let me go
On my own
I am never alone

Unheard of truth I behold
This always captures my mind
A replication of it all
That once filtered out the world

Suffocation of the past
Knowing these emotions won't last
And now I know, this paranoier won't last

Let me go
On my own
I am never alone

Unheard of truth I behold
This always captures my mind
A replication of it all
That once filtered out the world

Let it pass, Put it to rest, I'm tired of this place
