

The Last Time

Chromium

I dedicate this to all that you have done Eliminate my will to over come There's always someone in our way always something left to say But no
one, when i turn around

Hold on to all that you have
It may be the last time
That you are here
I feel you there, dissapearing further
From my world
inside

Now that I see this you turn away and run
I have to resist it's too late to become
From time to time i let it go I feel it's time for me to show
But no one, when i turn around

Hold on to all that you have
It may be
the last time
That you are here
I feel you there, dissapearing further
From
my world inside

From my world inside Hold on... Hold on to all that you have Hold on... It may be the last

Hold on to all that you have
It may be
the last time
That you are here
I feel you there, dissapearing further
From
my world inside
