Somebody New

Chuck Jackson

The only way I know how To tell you that we're through Is to explain the whole hearted Truth to you

I've found somebody new Somebody fine and brand new And no, no, no, no longer Am I love in with you

Listen, she's got pretty lips Flashy eyes She's telling me sweet things While you've been telling me lies Mama, we're through

But it's all right, oh, oh

Yes, I've got somebody new, yeah Somebody fine and brand new And no, no, no, no longer Am I love in with you

Listen, she treats me good She treats me right She give me good loving Morning, noon and night Baby, we're through

But it's all right

I'm talking about somebody new Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah Somebody fine and brand new

It was in my mind, baby And I had to tell you That we were through

But, oh, oh, you understand Don't you, baby, it's all right
