

Right As Rain

Chuck Ragan

Oh I must say, my hearts on fire
since I've been away,
since I last saw your face.

Oh Come what may, it'll all get right and lonely old nights will be a thing in the past.

All I wish is you to sleep
as sound as your eyes and as sweet.
I wish you to know I believe
that your company leaves me right as rain.

Oh I must say, my hearts on fire
but I don't mind the pain,
you're far worth the pain.

For now, I wish you to sleep
as sound as your eyes and as sweet.
I wish you to know I believe
that your company leaves me right as rain.
Leaves me right as rain.

After all, I wish you would sleep
as sound as your eyes and as sweet.
I wish you to know I believe
that your company leaves me right as rain.
Leaves me right as rain.
Leaves me right as rain.
