

Love Me

Chumbawamba

I'm an anarchist. I'm the anti-christ. Well, sort of. Not really. Its not big. Its not clever. I'm quite a reasonable fella. Your friendly uncle, good with kinds, good ol' paternalist pop. Good cop, Bad cop, Good cop, Bad cop, Good cop, Good cop. I was a wannabe and wannabe's don't know what they want to be .
I neednt of worried cos the man upstairs was looking out for me. God gave me the finger with his free hand, now I'm his left hand man.
Hey punk! Don't call me mac, my name is John Trabant!

Love Me, Love Me

They call me the great pretender. John Noakes was my mentor. I'm a walking talking ideas man, here's one I prepared earlier. Stretch Armstrong and his rubber band. Edwin Meese and the sex police. Please Mr Postman, post-post modern, deliver us from Elvis. Be-bop-a-lula baby baby, does good culture yes!
Now I found what I'm looking for, I find myself in another fine mess. Someone muddled my waters. I lost my way but now I see. I O.d'd no irony.
I'll rediscover God for the next L.P.
