

XOXO

Chunk! No, Captain Chunk!

Oh! Tell me everything!
Everything that you think of me.
You should know whatever you have thought,
Anywhere you go, you can't hide,
Cause we will stalk you and beat you down!

What is your most favorite thing?
You choose between judgment and life!

Give up the fight, you have lost and you will lose this war,
So you would better trust the way we are.
Unless you are bold, or too proud to fall down.

Oh! Admit everything!
Everything that you have said about me.
You should go somewhere to survive.
Keep in mind you can't hide,
Cause we will stalk you and track you down!

Give up the fight, you have lost and you will lose this war,
So you would better trust the way we are.
Unless you're bold, and so proud to fight!
You should remember about my tribe!
Tonight!
You will forget what is wrong or right.

Here comes the best time you will ever have, always remember the sound of my tribe!
A party time you have never had, just keep in mind this sound of my tribe!
The craziest time that you will ever have, never forget this sound of my tribe!
A violent time you have never had, you will remember the sound of my tribe!
You feel the hate now, you're getting mad, out of control cause here is my tribe!
The sound of my tribe!
Here is the tribe!
