

God's Plan

CHVRCHES

You belong with me
I'm tracing a line
I'm tracing the lines of your hand
You collapse in threads
Show me inside
You're wasted in white, like dirt sand
You confide in me
Shamed and maligned
Shaped and defined by God's plan
You belong to me
You're crossing a line
You're cold and confined
You're no friend

I'll wait for a sign
I'm tracing the lines of your hand
Of your hand
Of your hand
What's yours can be mine
I'm tracing the lines of your hand
Of your hand
Of your hand

You belong with me
And tonight
At least we can die
In silence
Is it worth it now?
Tell me, is it worth it now?
Is it worth it now?
