

Where Is Tomorrow

Cilla Black

Silent is the night
Closing in around me
I sit and listen for
Footsteps on the stairs

Thinking of the night
When your love can find me
I run to the door
But no one's there

Where is tomorrow
For someone like me
There's no tomorrow
For a memory
I lost a lifetime
What can I do
Where is tomorrow
Without you

If I close my eyes
I can almost see you
And I'll remember
Little things you said

If I touch my cheek
It could almost be you
Kissing all my
Lonely tears away

Where is tomorrow
For someone like me
There's no tomorrow
For a memory
I lost a lifetime
What can I do
Where is tomorrow
Without you

Tell me when...
Where is tomorrow
Without you
