

Easy to forget me

Cimorelli

I don't call you 'cause I know you won't pick up
I still don't know what happened, and it's been months

When I called you up at one in the morning
The time you told me you could trust me more than anyone
'Cause I still remember everything

We're in the same town,
But you're nowhere to be found

So tell me now, do you ever miss me?
How could you just walk away,
Is it that easy to forget me?

'Cause all I know is that we were so close,
And now it's like I don't know you anymore

I just gotta know, is it that easy to forget me?

Is it that easy to forget me?
Forget me

I never thought that we'd end up like this
'Cause you were the one that I could always count on

And now there's nothing left
No evidence that I was ever in your life

But I'm still the same
So why did you change?

We're in the same town,
But you're nowhere to be found

So tell me now, do you ever miss me?
How could you just walk away
Is it that easy to forget me?

'Cause all I know is that we were so close,
And now it's like I don't know you anymore

I just gotta know, is it that easy to forget me?

How did we end up strangers?

What would I say if I ever saw you again?

And I don't want to care so much

Why do I keep holding on?

I keep holding on

Put the phone down,
I'm not waiting to be found

So tell me now, do you ever miss me?

How could you just walk away

Is it that easy to forget me?
(That easy to forget me?)

'Cause all I know is that we were so close
And now it's like I don't know you anymore

And I just gotta know,

Is it that easy to forget me?

Easy, forget me

Is it that easy to forget me?

Easy, forget me
Easy, forget me

Oh, woah

Easy, forget me

I keep holding on

Easy, forget me
