

Move On

Cimorelli

If I had a time machine baby you would be here right next to me,
Cause I can't forget, staring out the window wishing I could go back for a minute,
That's all I need, I tell you that I miss you and you would never leave me

Cause every song and every street that reminds me of you and me,
My friends don't see it but I'm not alright it's getting to me,
It's been so long, but I can't find a way to move on,
This ain't a movie 'cause the end is not right,

And after all this time,
I haven't been alright,
Since we said goodbye

Cause I, I try to let go,
But I don't know how to move on,
And I tried to forget you,
But I don't know how to move on,

Tell me do you look back and think I'm just another mistake,
While I'm sitting here still remembering the promises you made,
Wish I could tell you what I'm thinking,
But baby we're the titanic, and we're slowly sinking,

The sky's clear the storm has passed,
But it's still raining in my head,
I try to stop but I can't help replaying every word you said,
I'm falling apart more each day,
Try to hold on to your memories but I can feel it fade away,

And after all this time,
I haven't been alright,
Since we said goodbye

Cause I, I try to let go,
But I don't know how to move on,
And I tried to forget you,
But I don't know how to move on,

How do you just let go when you don't know how,
How do you know in time it'll all work out?
And how do I know someday, I'll be okay?
When all I know is how I feel right now

Cause I, I try to let go,
But I don't know how to move on,
And I tried to forget you,
But I don't know how to move on,

Cause I, I try to let go,
But I don't know how to move on,
And I tried to forget you,
But I don't know how to move on.
