

Someone To Chase

Cimorelli

You, you love the chase
You love having something just out of your reach
And I know you can't bring yourself to feel anything if there's no mystery
You're so uncomfortable with anything stable

You love this waiting game
All this guessing and calculating
Carefully chosen words
But you're so predictable
You just want unpredictable

And I could do all the right things to keep you interested
And you could say you never felt like this and there's no one like me
Cause you fall so hard and so easily
But I know at the end of the day you just want someone to chase
You just want someone to chase
You just want someone to chase

You, you play it safe
You'll only love someone if they're running away
Cause you know you'll never get stuck having to open up and show who you are
If you don't stay in the same place for long

I hate this waiting game
All this guessing and calculating
Carefully chosen words
But you're so predictable
You just want unpredictable

And I could do all the right things to keep you interested
And you could say you never felt like this and there's no one like me
Cause you fall so hard and so easily
But I know at the end of the day you just want someone to chase
You just want someone to chase

And I'm not denying, I know that it's fun
But if you're always chasing someone you're always alone
You're always alone

And I could do all the right things to keep you interested

And I could do all the right things to keep you interested
And you could say you never felt like this and there's no one like me
Cause you fall so hard and so easily
But I know at the end of the day you just want someone to chase
You just want someone to chase
You just want someone to chase
You just want someone to chase
You just want someone to chase
