

Sunsets and Heartbreak

Cimorelli

Christina:

The streetlights were gold
You were standing by my car
I jumped and you caught me
I'm hanging onto every word and I can barely breathe
And you're so tall when I'm next to you
I look up at you and try to hide my smile
You walk me to my door
I've pictured this a million times before

Amy:

I'm sitting on these stairs
Starring at the wall
The light's shining
But I can't see at all
Just tryna connect things in my mind

Lauren:

Wish I could have this my way
But I know you can't stay

Lisa+All:

You stand there in my driveway
You're a red light on a highway
And I'm drowning in the sound of your name
Between late nights and mistakes
I can't stand in this earthquake
I look up at the sky
The light's starting to fade
Here comes sunsets and heartbreak

I'm going down
I'm going down
I'm going down
Our story is sunsets and heartbreak

Sunsets and heartbreak

Dani:

Sitting in my car today
It's like nothing even happen yesterday

Christina:

If you were here right next to me
I swear I could replay it all day long

Dani:

When I sing that song

Christina:

Looked over at you saw your smile
And I was gone

Dani:

This little town is magic

It's making me feel things
I never thought I would
My name's in your phone every night
You tell 'bout your sister and your family
Gave myself away
now you know I'm in love with your laugh
Cause I can't even hold it back

Lauren:
Wish we could just stay here
But I know it's not real

Lisa+All:
You stand there in my driveway
You're a red light on a highway
And I'm drowning in the
sound of your name
Between late nights and mistakes
I can't stand in this earthquake
I look up at the sky
The light's starting to fade
Here comes sunsets and heartbreak

I'm going down
I'm going down
I'm going down
Our story is sunsets and heartbreak

Katherine:
I don't wanna say goodbye
I don't wanna say goodbye
I don't wanna say goodbye
Maybe if I close my eyes
Maybe if I hold real tight
I won't have to say goodbye

Goodbye

Lisa:
You stand there in my driveway
You're a red light on a highway

All:
Between late nights and mistakes
I can't stand in this earthquake
I look up at the sky
The light's starting to fade
Here comes sunsets and heartbreak

Sunsets and heartbreak
Late nights and mistakes
Sunsets and heartbreak
