

Gravity

Cindy Morgan

I was looking for a fantasy
Sometimes reality's just not
What you're looking for
And then the gravity
Pulls to calamity

High on catastrophe
And I just couldn't see
The forest falling in
But there is a gravity
Happening in spite of you and me
Pulling us close
Double the dose

Life is a scary thing
Promise a diamond ring
Yeah, anything you need
You're standing still in the pouring rain
Forget your name but anyway
Well, maybe I'll call you sometime
Why do we play these games
Isn't there any shame
To our own selfish pain
But eyes that see everything
Happening in spite of you and me
Pulling us close
Double the dose

Dear Lord, help us believe now
In the true Light
Burning tonight
'Cause we won't survive
If we don't believe now
In the true Light
Burning tonight
Jesus, You're light
Burning tonight

Are you looking for a fantasy
'Cause reality scares you
Want what you just can't have
And if you had you probably wouldn't Want it any more
To believe in a fantasy is such a losing plea
Cause it's vanishing
Thank God
There's a gravity happening
In spite of you and me
Pulling us close
Double the dose
Pulling us so close
Double the dose

Dear Lord, help us believe now
In the true Light
Burning tonight
Help us tonight

Help us believe now
In the true light
Burning tonight
Jesus, You're light
Burning tonight
