

The Days Of Innocence

Cindy Morgan

Young and tender
How did those days just pass us by
Times to remember
All but forgotten in our lives
Don't you find when you turn around
That we've lost much more than we ever found

So hold me tight
Oh Lord. turn the night
Take me back (Oh how I miss the innocence)
To what was right
Help me find the time
That we once had (Bring back the days of innocence)
A time to treasure
A time when the truth meant more than words
Love was forever
A tide that was never meant to turn
So much lost
But there's more to be gained
I wonder what waits
There beyond the rain
So hold me tight
Oh Lord. turn the night
Take me back (Oh how I miss the innocence)
To what was right
Help me find the time
That we once had (Bring back the days of innocence)
I wanna tell you
Time rushes by
There's time to stop and live
Don't live a lie
Oh, if we just reach up to Him
And all that might have been
'Cause you know that it's good
And you know that it's right
You know that He's waiting tonight
If we reach up to Him
And all that might have been
'Cause you know that it's good
And you know that it's right
You know that He's waiting tonight
So hold me tight
Oh Lord. turn the night
Take me back (Oh how I miss the innocence)
To what was right
Help me find the time
That we once had (Bring back the days of innocence)
So hold me tight
Oh Lord. turn the night
Take me back (Oh how I miss the innocence)
To what was right
Help me find the time
That we once had (Bring back the days of innocence)
